My consciousness has up-leveled so much that my actions are taken with clarity and confidence. And when I experience that, I stop and move into gratitude because she reminded me that a focus on gratitude will provide more of what I desire! #Abundance!!!

It's a wonderful circle! Working with Dr. Amanda has significantly up-leveled my personal and professional development. I am constantly finding examples of my increased level of consciousness which has allowed me to move toward my "zone of genius." Doing the work that she suggests has increased not only my consciousness, but I also feel a stronger connection with God and overall more joy. Thank you Dr. A! I look forward to our next time together!"
